Property Description

Twelve-bedroom estate spread across 4 villas on 7,000 m² of land in Playa Grande. Six-bedroom main residence with panoramic ocean views and open-concept living. Three private guest villas, each with its own pool and unique layout. Designed by LSD Architecture, known for tropical modernist design. Ideal for a family estate, wellness retreat, or high-end rental investment. Located just a short walk from Playa Grande's iconic surf and golden shoreline, on the northern Pacific coast of Costa Rica, Dos Monitos is a private luxury compound spanning approximately 1.73 acres. The property consists of a striking six-bedroom main residence and three independent guest villas, each designed for privacy, modern living, and seamless integration with the natural surroundings. The main home offers luminous indoor-outdoor living with expansive terraces, open entertaining areas, and sweeping ocean views.
