Property Description

Casa Quantum Estate is a rare, design-forward sanctuary where modern luxury, artistry, and sustainability come together in one exceptional Costa Rican property. The estate includes a main residence, Casa Quantum, and a two-story guest house, Casa Colina—offering flexibility for private living, hosting, or income-producing rentals. Constructed with concrete masonry and rich local hardwoods, both homes combine durability with natural warmth, blending contemporary architecture seamlessly into the surrounding landscape. Casa Quantum offers 139 m² (1,496 sq ft) of interior living space and 159 m² (1,787 sq ft) of outdoor terraces, with 2 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms. Fully furnished, it is currently operating as a successful Airbnb. Casa Colina features 3 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms, expansive glass windows that create a treehouse-like feel, and two elevated terraces that capture ocean breezes and lush jungle views.
