Property Description

High above Costa Rica's Pacific coast, in the exclusive enclave of Faro Escondido, stands Casa Meerwald, an architectural masterpiece envisioned by Saxe Studio, celebrated for harmonizing contemporary design with the essence of the natural world. With 1,400 square meters of living space, Casa Meerwald redefines the concept of home as an architectural sanctuary, where art, nature, and sophistication coexist in perfect harmony. From its privileged perch overlooking the Bay of Herradura, every room opens to sweeping ocean views that capture the beauty and tranquility of the Pacific. Upon entering, a sculptural floating staircase wraps around an indoor garden, forming the poetic heart of the residence, a serene space where light, air, and greenery intertwine to create a living, breathing atmosphere. On the main level, the social area extends toward a spectacular infinity-edge pool, a water mirror terrace, and a fire pit, setting the stage for starlit evenings and quiet coastal moments.
