Property Description

Nestled within the gated community of Tamarindo Park, which is located in the idyllic beach town of Tamarindo, Costa Rica, this exquisite home embodies the essence of tropical modernity. Designed by renowned architect Richard Muller, celebrated for his seamless integration of contemporary aesthetics with natural surroundings, the residence exudes a sense of harmony and tranquility. Casa Guacimo is a 7-bed, 7.5-bath home, where the architecture is a testament to Muller's visionary approach, characterized by clean lines, expansive glass panels, and open spaces that blur the boundaries between indoor luxury and outdoor serenity. Surrounded by lush tropical foliage and overlooking the valley and Guanacaste province, this home serves as both a private family compound and an exclusive retreat.
