Property Description

Homes and lots are not hard to come by in foothills of the 1,300 metre (4,300 ft) coastal mountains towering above Ojochal. So what makes this property an ULTRA-RARE one-of-a-kind offer? It is not just the size of the plantel (more about that later) but also the privacy, landscaping, layout, and surroundings of this amazing piece of land! The lot is located in the exclusive jungle-covered Phase 8 area which stretches over the foothills between the coastal mountains and Pacific Ocean. Away from the hustle and bustle of Ojochal and the Costanera highway, here you can see and hear the Pacific Ocean surf, watch the mist-shrouded mountains, enjoy numerous rivers and waterfalls, and be surrounded by the wildlife that Costa Rica is famous for – monkeys, toucans, macaws, and the majestic blue morpho butterflies are just some of your friendly neighbours. But if you crave an escape, Ojochal's trendy cafes, world-class restaurants, pubs, shops, supermarkets, medical clinics, sport and leisure facilities (did someone say pickleball?) and amazing beaches are just a few kilometres down the hill! The best of both world is right here in Phase 8.
