Property Description

Welcome to the "Small Wood House in Cañaza," a charming piece of Costa Rican paradise tucked away in the serene town of Cañaza, within the picturesque province of Puntarenas, Golfito canton, and Puerto Jiménez district. This delightful property, situated just 250 meters west of the entrance of the old El Yugo hall, offers a peaceful retreat surrounded by the natural beauty of the region. Spanning over 1,607 square meters (approximately 0.397 acres), this titled property boasts a warm and inviting two-bedroom wood house. The house features a cozy living room, a dining area, a fully equipped bathroom, a laundry room, and a closed corridor, providing all the comforts of a cozy home. With public street access, electricity, cellular network coverage, and both municipal and well-water sources, this property combines the convenience of modern amenities with the tranquility of rural living.
