Property Description

Casa Vista Azul is the investment property you have always dreamed of owning! Set in the heart of Manuel Antonio, this dramatic Balinese-inspired home brings in all the magic of tropical architecture with a fusion of organic materials, luxury, integration of the rainforest canopy and the living spaces, and use of the cascading topography such a part of this area's character. The home is a POWERHOUSE rental property and has the option of turn key-ready management with the current team who has the home producing incredibly strong returns. If you are looking for a personal vacation home that is PRODUCING strong income with a fantastic management team in place, this is one of the top options in all of Manuel Antonio. You enter the home on the main common area level which is DRAMATIC with its postcard views of Manuel Antonio National Park and the open-air kitchen, living, and dining. It is such an amazing experience to be immersed both in luxury and in the canopy of the rainforest at the same time and Vista Azul gives you both.
