Property Description

I am happy to offer this lot for sale. It is located in one of the elegant gated beachfront communities in the city of Jacó. The lot is close to everything you need. You can walk to restaurants and markets. The lot is big. It is 415.73 meters. That is 4473.88 feet. This is a size to build the beach house you always wanted. The beach house you always wanted can be built on this lot. The lot already has the papers it needs to start building. There are plans for a house with 3 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms. The house will have a pool and a place to park your car. The community is nice. It has a pool and a rancho. The gardens are nice. The roads are made of paver bricks. There are walkways and street lights. The community is. Has security all the time. You can walk to the beach from the community. The fee to live in the community is reasonable. It is cheaper than other gated beachfront communities in Jacó.
