Property Description

Casa La Paz – Stunning Modern Home on 6-Acre Lot, Ultimate in Sustainability Discover Casa La Paz, a stunning modern home built entirely with BuildBlock ICFs (Insulated Concrete Forms), offering the ultimate in sustainability, energy efficiency, and disaster resilience; this is the most environmentally friendly, energy efficient and disaster resistant building material being used in Costa Rica today! Nestled on a breathtaking 6-acre valley view lot, this property includes two additional building sites, perfect for constructing a rental casita to generate extra income, or a guest casita to accommodate your friends and family. What You'll Love: Eco-Friendly & Disaster Resistant: Built with Insulated Concrete Forms, providing R50 insulation, 150% more earthquake resistance, and fire resistance, all while ensuring clean interior air quality, as mold will not grow on it. Expansive 6-Acre Lot: Enjoy stunning valley views with room to expand—two additional building pads offer the potential for rental income or guest accommodations.
